It has come to the attention of the United States Department of Agriculture (USDA) Food and Nutrition Service that a private company, Federal Publishing Limited, Inc. (aka Federal Publication), of Miramar, Florida, is marketing a publication entitled "USDA United States Department of Agriculture and FDA Food and Drug Administration Compliance Journal 2007".

This publication is not issued or approved by USDA. In addition, we wish to clarify that the publication is not required for state agencies' or school food authorities' participation in USDA's National School Lunch or School Breakfast Programs. We note that USDA has available at no cost material and guidance regarding compliance with requirements of the National School Lunch and School Breakfast Programs. Please visit the USDA website at www.fns.usda.gov/cnd/ or www.fns.usda.gov/fns/food\_safety.htm for information.
